

GreenLight Project

King County Work Training Program

Program Details

The GreenLight Project is a work training program designed to give young adults training and certifications in construction, trades, and green industry.

- 5 week training at South Seattle Community College – Georgetown Campus including introduction to construction, carpentry, welding, electrical work and other trades.
- Certifications in First Aid/CPR, OSHA 10, Falls/Scaffolding, and Flagging.
- 4 week internship with a manufacturing/trade business in the Seattle Area

Eligibility Requirements:

1. Age 18 -24
2. A resident of a specific geographical area in South Seattle and Southwest Seattle, and:
 - Unemployed
 - High-school dropout
 - Re-entry/ex-offender
 - Veteran, or
 - Disadvantaged with no or low-income and in need of updated training related to energy efficiency and renewable energy industries

Program Schedule

Start Date: October 11, 2010

1 week orientation at YouthSource, Renton, WA

1 week orientation at South Seattle Community College – Georgetown

4 week training at South Seattle Community College – Georgetown

4 week internship with a business in manufacturing, industrial or trade

To Get More Information and to find out if you are eligible, please call:

Mario Bailey at 206.399.5879

no later than October 4, 2010